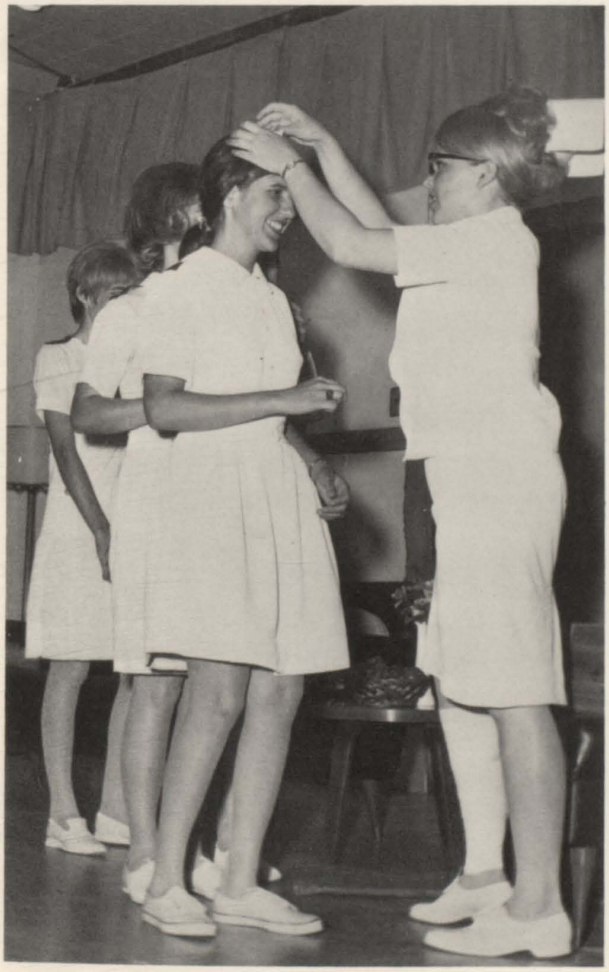
If I see one more ticket, I'm going to go off my rocker . . . This wind is not only blowing my music; it may blow my instrument along with it . . . I don't think I can wait until half-time to know . . . Maybe we could bribe the coaches or something . . . Just think, it's our last blue-white game . . . Oh-h-h, I got it!! . . .

Senior Class Presents:

Girls in White

Is my cap on straight? Dummy, you have it on backwards . . . I know I'll forget my lines. What comes after she says that?? . . . You don't look like a nurse; you look like an attendant from a pen . . . Tell you what, you stand right here behind the curtain and tell me my lines when I forget 'em, okay? . . . One more rehearsal and I'll turn into a script-spouting machine . . . Mom, you read her part and I'll do mine. Yeah, I know you can't act; just read it. Sure, I'll watch the eggs. Scrambled or fried? Yes, I realize that's not one of my lines . . . No, I can't go off; I've got rehearsal . . . Oh, it was worth it . . .



Miss McEvoy 1969

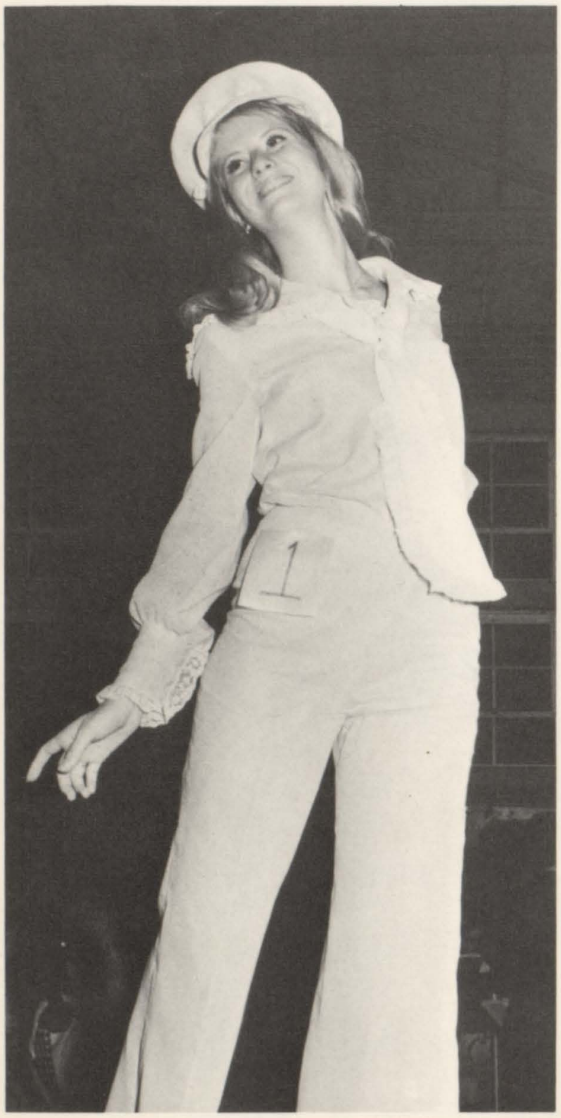
Valerie Funck

1st Finalist: Deborah Bassett
2nd Finalist: Teresa Cox
3rd Finalist: Sharon Allen
4th Finalist: Kathy Young

JUDGES: Mr. Robert Berlin, Mrs. Carrie Williams, Mr. Walter Bailey

MASTER OF CEREMONIES: Mr. Ken Hicks

Zip me up, will you? . . . I've got two minutes to learn the last five pages of this song . . . What if I trip going onto the stage? The three billy goats go gr-ruff . . . Where's the record? No, not that side; the other one . . . Now, you watch while I do this just one more time . . . What will I do if they give me a real hard question? All I'll be able to do is a croak . . . Gee, Miss Congeniality and Miss McEvoy too? . . .



Hard Work and Planning Make Successful Junior-Senior Dances

How many hours can a person exist without food, anyway? . . . We're going to have to cut the backdrop across the middle. What's the matter, don't you trust me? . . . Okay, everybody, up on the bleachers — hold on while the staple team goes to it . . . What if the invitations don't come in? Well, we can make an announcement on the intercom . . . Wouldn't it be funny if the ceiling fell? How would you like a sock in the jaw? . . . Where's the paint? I thought you had it . . . What paint?? . . . Will the invitations committee, the backdrop committee, the entrance committee, and the refreshments committee please meet in the lobby . . . Why don't all the juniors come to the lobby, so I won't have to make any more announcements? . . . How are we going to get all this cardboard over to the gym? We could always put wheels on it and roll it over . . . Let's make sure we have enough punch; I'll bring the vat my Grandma used to make soap in . . . My parents have forgotten what I look like . . . almost done . . . now I have exactly 45 minutes to get dressed . . . Oh, it's beautiful!

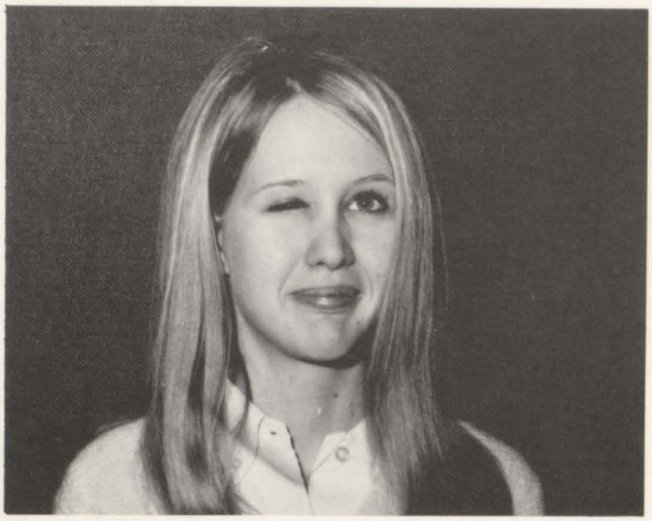
Homecoming 1969

Fran Henderson Crowned Queen

Trick or treat . . . Why, of all the days in the year, does it have to rain on our homecoming?? . . . drip, drip, drip, . . . If everybody puts their umbrellas together, we'd have a solid roof . . . Oh, heck, my mum's getting soggy . . . drip, drip, drip . . . The football players should have worn their galoshes . . . Doesn't that Lucy look smug? . . . Personally, I think Schroeder is the real swinger . . . I'm so excited, I can't be still — half time is still five minutes and two seconds away . . . Ohhh, here it comes . . . Why, why, that's me!!! Fran Henderson's my name too!! . . . Oh, look, she's crying and Steve's swinging her around! . . .

Cheryl Fincher

Where's my gavel? . . . How many hundred packages of Christmas paper?? . . . How can I go three places at the same time? . . . This ratting had better be worth it . . . Who said a girl couldn't play a trombone? . . . "For honor, loyalty, and courage."



Parlez-vous français? . . . Don't you work at Davison's? . . . Go Georgia Bulldogs . . . Do, re, me . . . Choir tour . . . sparkle, sparkle.

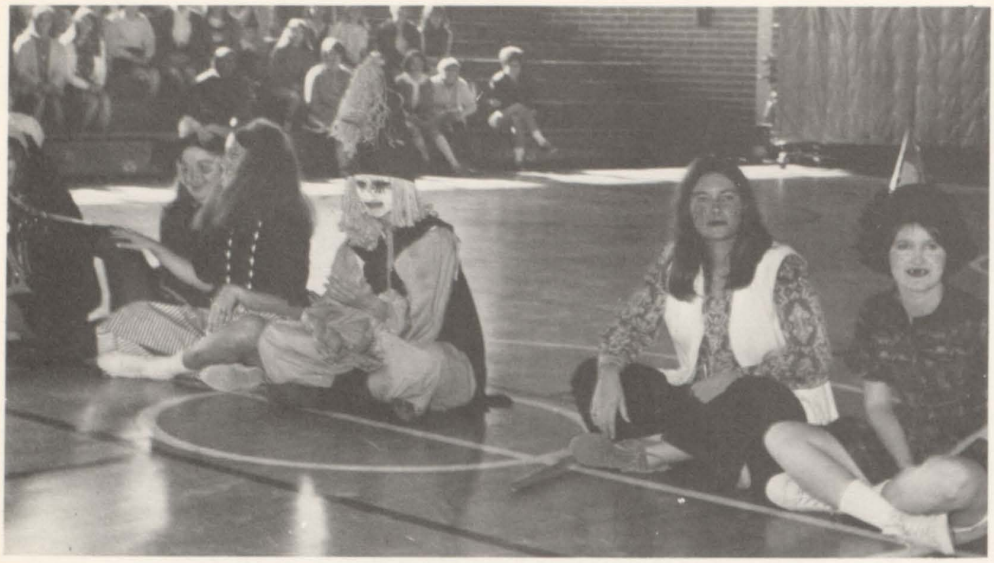
Julie Blair

Barbara Wyatt

Rams the Best, the very best . . . All right girls, come to order. This week we're going to sell donuts . . . again . . . I'm going to get in the Honors Dorm, though how I'll stay there, I'll never know . . . Georgia Southern I Hope! . . . Go Rams! . . .

These decorations are getting to me: glad there's only one dance a year . . . "To be or not to be" . . . Where's that paint brush; we can't paint signs without a brush . . . Come on, you guys . . . My favorite game is charades . . .

Debbie Hayes



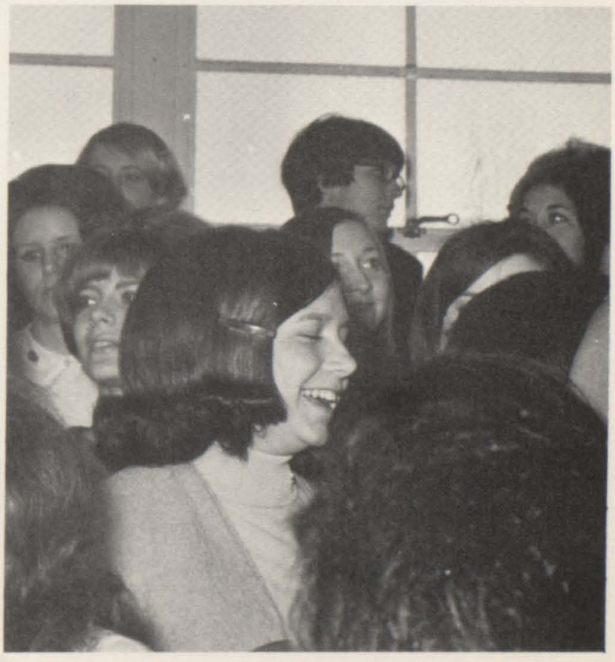
Slick Witches

Linda Harrison and Mrs. Grace

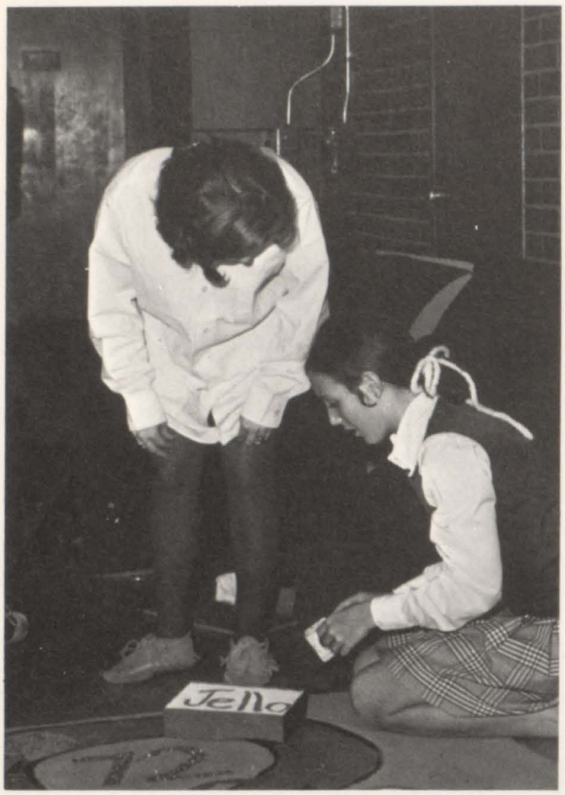
Skillyzam, skillyze, skillyzoo . . . You better watch it, I'll put a whammy on you . . . What's the spell for making my pumpkin the biggest? . . . I've been having to travel by magic carpet because my broom's in the shop having a lube job . . . These socks are really freaky; orange and purple go together so well . . . That's funny, my hair is so stringy; it feels like yarn . . . (cackle, cackle) . . . I can't see anything 'cause the wart on the end of my nose gets in the way . . . Which teacher is a witch? Why It's Mrs. Grace! . . . (cackle, cackle) . . .

Beta Taps New Members

How am I gonna know which one she is? Get all her friends to stand up and say, "Here she is" . . . I want a flower . . . Oh hush, you've had your turn . . . surprise!! . . . Who, me?? . . . Yeah, you . . .



Juniors "Do Their Thing"



It was the devil in me that made me throw that rock . . . Come on, let me see who my good student is . . . Hey, you can't take that prop on stage like that; you've got it upside down . . . Where will the judges sit? I want them to be sure and see my good side . . . If tape, glue, paste, and staples won't hold this cardboard, what about cement? . . . We love Smokey Bear, we love Smokey Bear, (smack, smack) . . . If the backdrop decides to fall down, I hope nobody's on stage . . . What are we going to do with the people left over after the bleachers, chairs, and floor are all filled up? We could always suspend them from the rafters . . . I think these protesters ought to go home . . . J-E-L-L-OOOOO . . . What do you mean Joe Namath has his own team? Yes, they're the Playboys . . . OH, I wish the judges would hurry up and tell their decision . . . My goodness, that's a pretty trophy.

THERAIBLEM

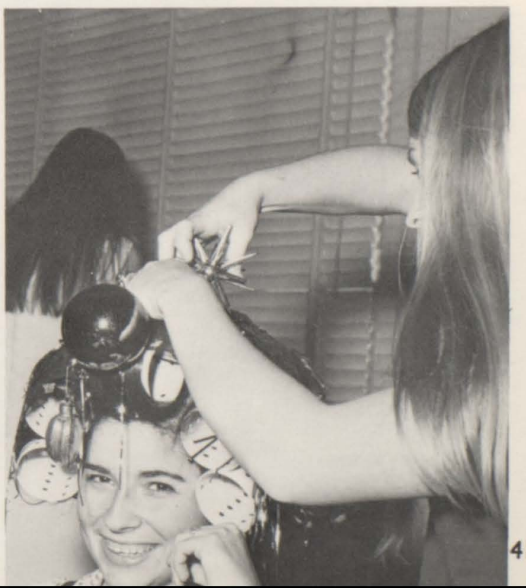
Carla Horne Chosen Miss Teenage Macon

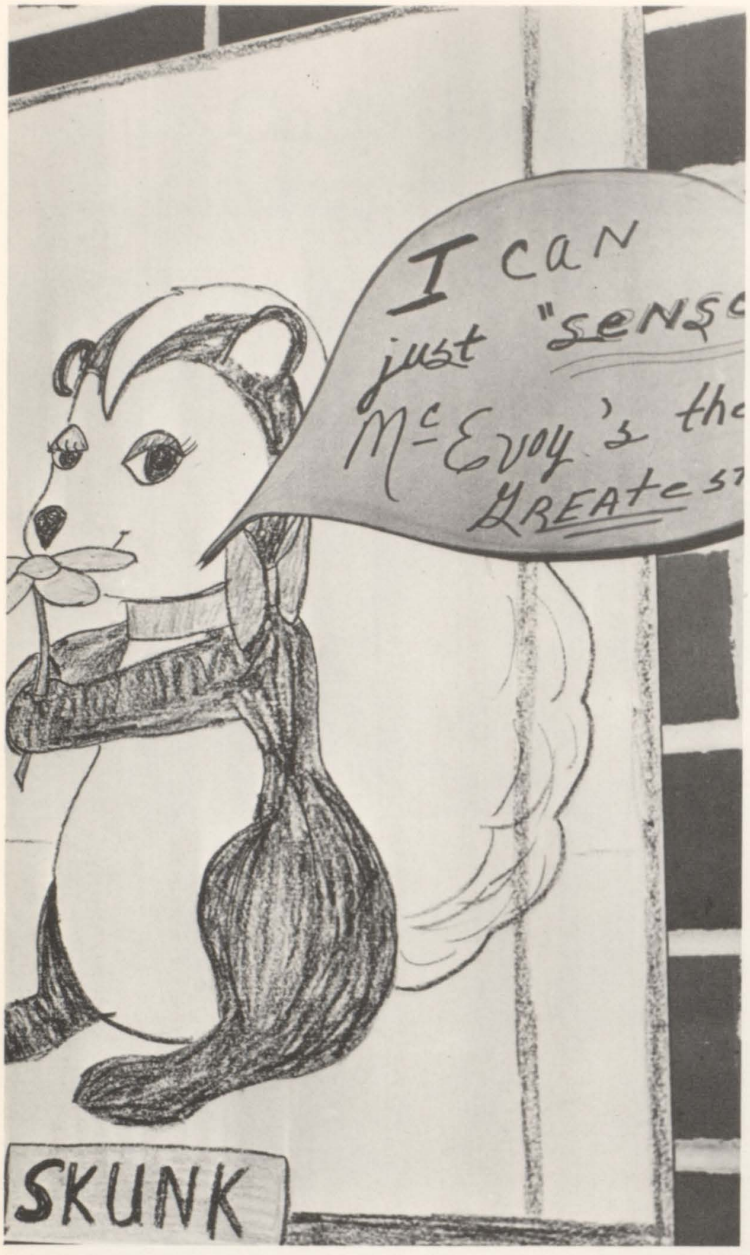
"I never thought of entering the pageant until my grandmother asked me to do it as a personal favor. My talent was a jazz routine to "The Worm." On the second night of the pageant, I was chosen as one of the twelve semifinalists. Three other girls from McEvoy were chosen, Cathy Farnsworth, Shirley Dixon, and Patti Darity. I was lucky enough then to be one of the five finalists. The judges asked each of us a question and then the decision was made. I couldn't believe that it was my name they were calling out as Miss Teenage Macon."

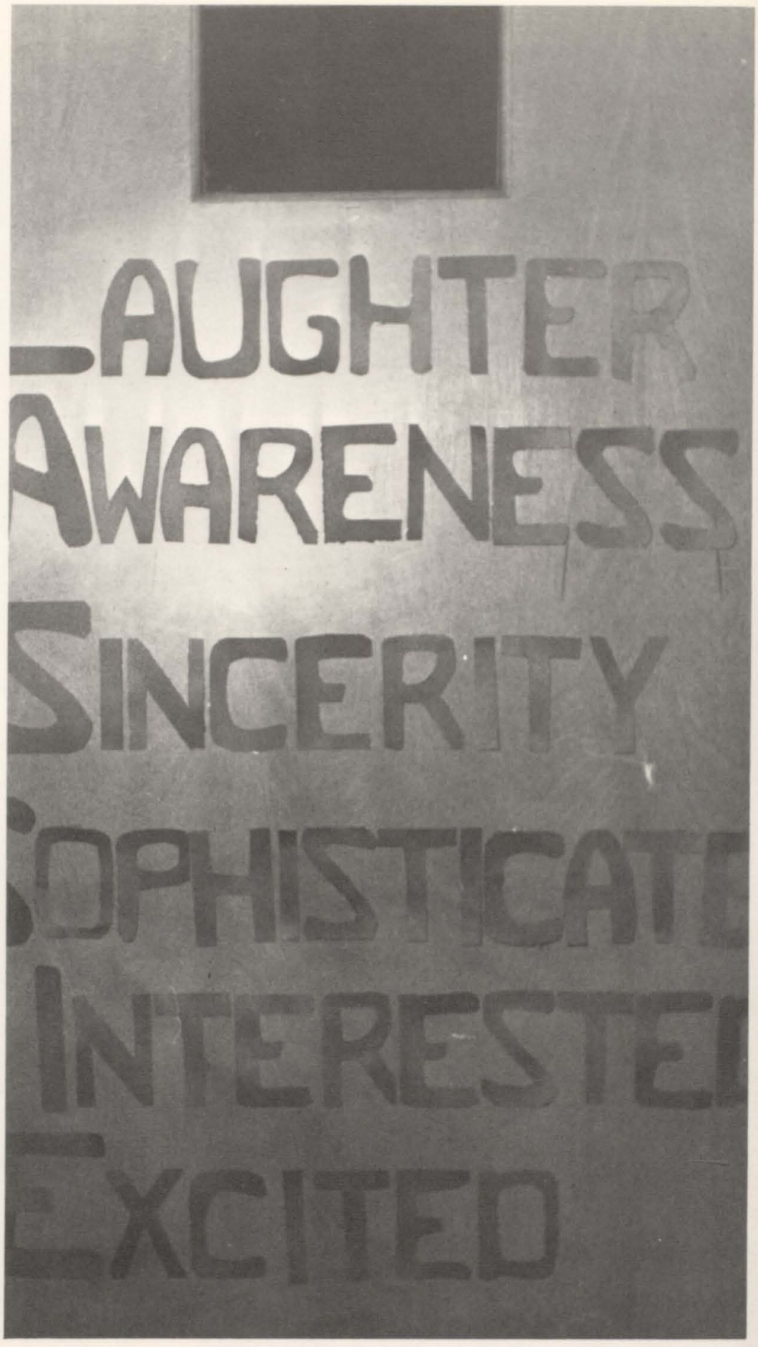
Carla Horne

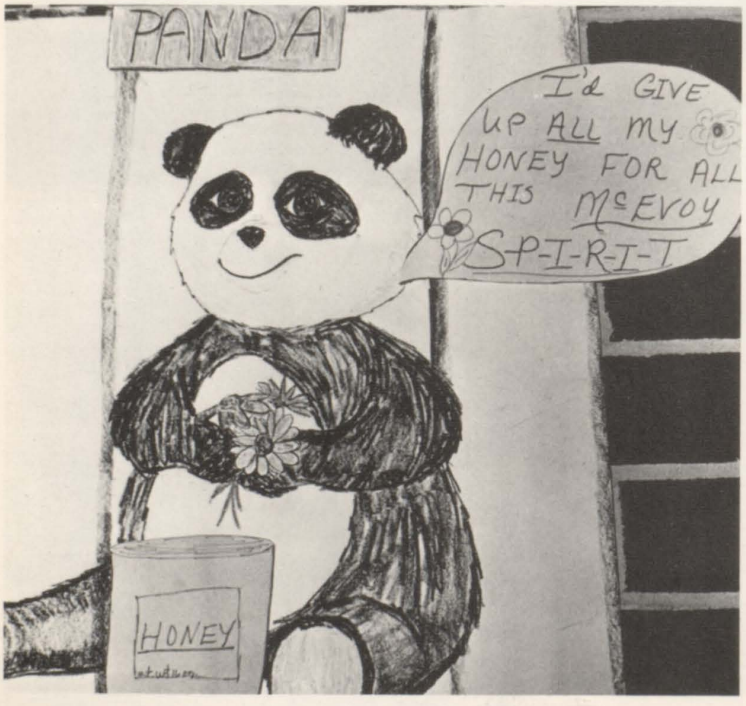
Christmas — Lassie Style

We're going to have to call the fire department to get the star on top of that tree . . . My door's better than your door . . . Gee, someone sent me a Christmas card . . . Jingle Bells, Jingle Bells . . . I wonder what's in this present; it looks like one of my baby sister's wrap jobs . . . This gym blooks like the whole town had a Christmas party in here . . . This doll is so cute — I don't think our foster child will ever get it . . . I wonder how many miles of strung popcorn this tree will have to have . . . Silent night, holy night . . . Did you know Santa could play a tuba? . . .







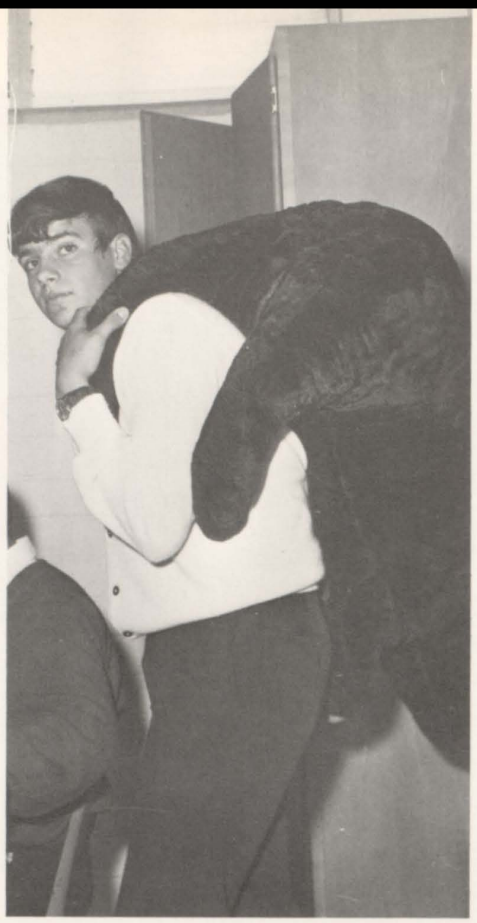


Spirit Week Unites McEvoy

Why can't we have pork chops and chicken on the same plate? Who's making up this menu anyhow? . . . McEvoy Spirit . . . I hope no one trips over the crepe paper. I know it's going to be on the walls, but with our luck, it won't stay there long . . . After about the ten jillioneth Scottie dog, all blue squares look alike, as far as I'm concerned . . . I hope that lion and this hippo can peacefully coexist . . . Hey, I think that hillbilly has already opened the spirit jug! . . . Love, McEvoy, America . . .

Kiddie Day

My doll throws up, wets her britches, and cries . . . Your pigtails make you look like a cocker spaniel (hee, hee) . . . Tie my sash back; somebody keeps untying it . . . Hey! Don't hit her on the head with your baseball bat; you'll break it — (the bat, I mean) . . . Mrs. Beasley says "Would you like to try on my glasses, you may if you like" . . . Can I have a lick of your sucker? . . . Would you like to play with my Popeye doll; he just laughs and laughs . . . You know, I think Miss Moore could pass as a kid . . . Why is everybody kissing Mr. Lowery? Are they bribing the judges? . . . Kiddie Day — You should have seen us!



"Those Were the Days, My Friends . . ."

Forget about eight extra pages . . . I'm not selling twenty dozen donuts . . . Why would Bill think I had a crush on him just because I've called him every night this week to schedule pictures . . . Has anybody got a pencil? Ya'll please hush . . . Bleed this picture into the gutter . . . You mean the sewer? Who bled in the sewer? . . . Well it's not my fault . . . Has anybody got a pencil? . . . How do you fit pictures on one page? . . . Anybody know where the cropper is? . . . What's a cropper? . . . It's a big orange thing . . . I've lost the football pictures . . . But Mrs. Norris, why can't we put that picture in the annual? . . . Tomorrow! You mean my section is going in tomorrow . . . Is that what you've been telling me for three weeks? . . . I'll never meet my deadline . . . Susan, just tell me, why do we have a deadline? Let's forget about the annual and let people collect their own pictures . . . HELP!

Picking up paper and junk gets awfully tedious. Why doesn't someone invent a giant vacuum cleaner that will just pick up trash and leave the weeds standing? . . . I'm not cut out for this usher thing. I'll say, you just seated a husband two rows up from his wife . . . Boy, you're nutty as a fruitcake . . . Hey, you just hung the star on the bottom of the Christmas tree, you dum-dum . . . What's a whisk broom, anyhow? Maybe it's something that people with naturally curly hair use to brush their hair . . . There are several qualifications for membership in Civitan: a ring in the nose, ill health, a dirty car, and a tendency toward being tardy . . . Jekyll Island — Here we come!

Pep Club Supports Rams

Shinny up that goal post and I'll throw the crepe paper up to you . . . Oh, no, don't tell me we decorated with the wrong colors . . . Hand me the paint. No! Don't throw it! Oh, well, this sign will just have to have a red background . . . How many Fight 'em Rams buttons did you sell? Five, one to my little brother, one to my boyfriend, and three to me . . . Are you going to the game Friday night? Are you kidding, there's a seat there with my name on it . . . Where's the F stencil? Wait a minute, I'm patching it up with toothpaste . . . How do you spell stomp? . . . Why, on the day we decorate the goal posts, does there have to be sub-zero weather and winds 100 miles an hour? . . . Okay, all you Peppy Clubbers, on the count of three, everybody blow your whistles . . . Get your football decals here, even though you can get them free at the drugstore . . .

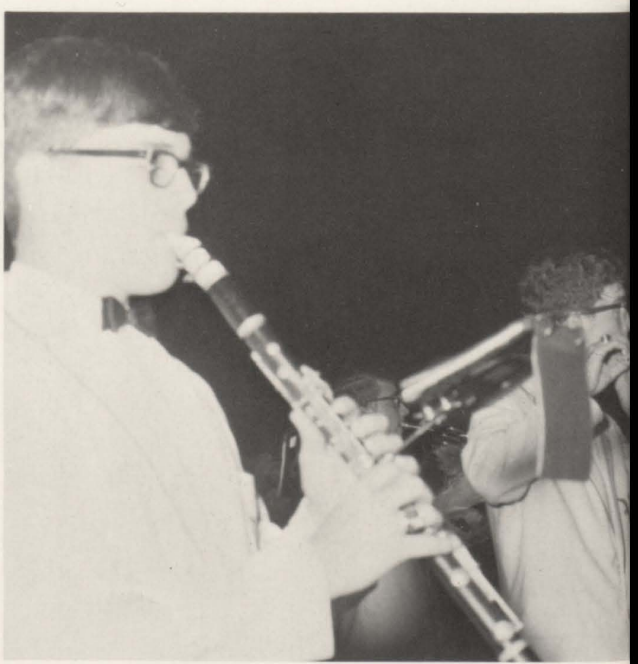
It Takes Many Days to Reach Perfection!



PLAY IT ONE MORE TIME . . . But, We've already played it 100 times! . . . Pick up your feet . . . stay in a straight line . . . Now beginners, all you have to do is a left pinwheel, about face, forward 8, right pinwheel; now isn't that easy . . . IF YA'LL DON'T SHUT UP WE'LL STAY OUT HERE ALL LUNCH PERIOD . . . Boys, how can ya'll play with that cigarette hanging out your mouth . . . Of course, we'll play the Fight Song marching on the field . . . We can't go on the field looking like this . . . Get up the Fight Song . . . DO IT AGAIN . . . Oh, boy! The Christmas Parade . . . turn the corner like a door . . . blistered feet . . . Fun, fun, fun . . . I've got chills going up and down my spine . . . Don't go out on the field if you feel sick . . . if you faint I'll die . . . quit crying . . . you didn't mess up too bad . . . We're not really going to perform in this rain, are we? . . . we are . . . Mr. Graves, Please play Dixie . . . Do you realize that it's 20 . . . Yes, I'm just one big chill bump . . . I can't twirl; my fingers are frozen . . . this is my last game . . . get in a circle and pray like you never have before . . . here we are marching Santa around Westgate . . . oh, unreal . . . smile at the camera.

Boy, we had a great crowd today . . . Yeah, if you consider 15 a great crowd . . . Hey Hidgeon, can you believe we're 17 and 1 . . . Notice the crowd's getting larger . . . Curtis probably can't hit that ball . . . Hey, Durden, who'd you fight with this game . . . Ah, Durden you didn't hit that guy that hard . . . Too bad the ump saw you . . . ALL RIGHT BOYS BREAK IT UP . . . I'm going to break him up . . There he goes again, stealing . . . Henderson's going out to the mound again, changing pitchers . . . Bunt and run to third . . . No, Bell not that way, go to first and second, THEN third . . . Hey, Price just hit a homer for Cleo Price, III . . . Oh, no Bealle and Redmond are going to collide . . . I thought you had it, But I thought you had it . . . That Bullpen's lively tonight . . . O.K. boys pack 'em up: it's a long way back to Macon . . . Billy Henderson: "Spirit of the Rams"

No one person can claim full responsibility for the success of Willingham athletics; yet, there is one man who rises above all others. Any attempt at gathering the story of the Rams must revolve around this man and his ideals. He has a rare quality of affecting the lives of those around him. It goes without saying that he has been a highly constructive influence. He is a leader, a driving force, a coach, a counselor, a friend; but above all, he is a winner and he conveys his winning spirit to everyone around him. His unquestioned loyalty and pride have stood as an example to students from a time in 1958 when Willingham was just a dream. For twelve years he has coaxed and nurtured his "Impossible Dream" into a reality. He will always be remembered as a fiery competitor; he will always be remembered as "THE CHIEF."

To the students of Willingham and McEvoy, the twelve-year rivalry with Lanier has been more than an athletic contest. It has been a chance for the entire student body to compete actively with the cross-town foe. Whether in football, basketball, baseball, track or whatever, spirit before a clash with Lanier always looms highest. There is more than just winning or losing involved here. The pride of the school and the community is put on the line to be defended by students as well as athletes. The enthusiasm of the students is unified by the familiar cry of "SMEAR LANIER."

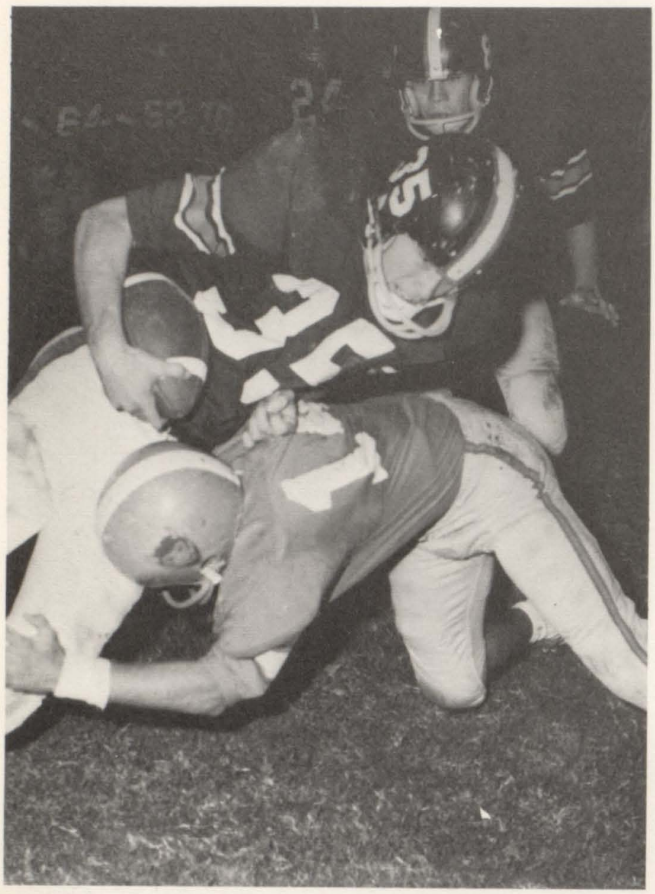
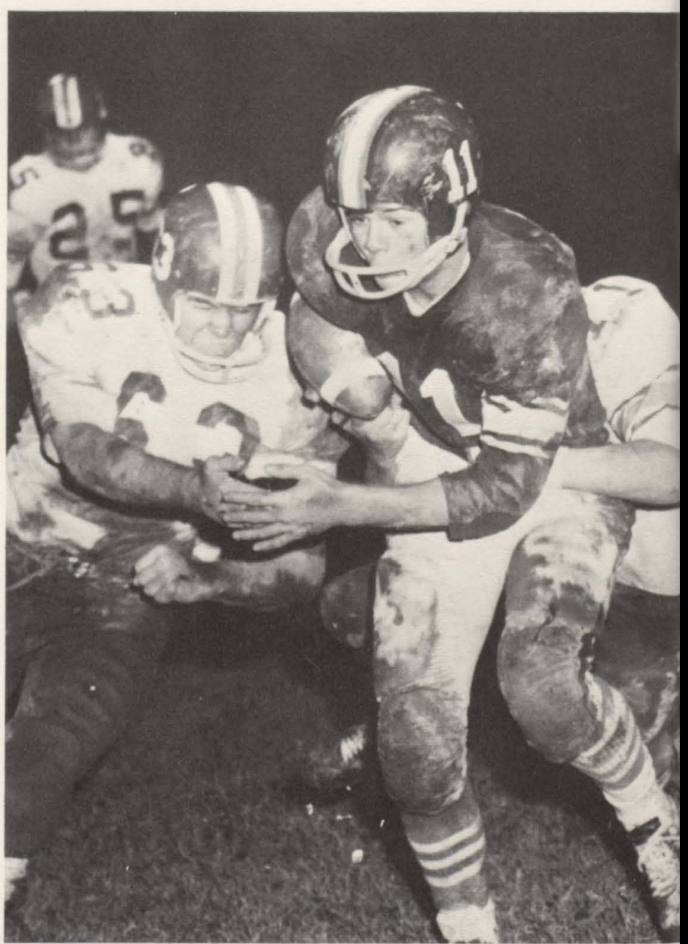
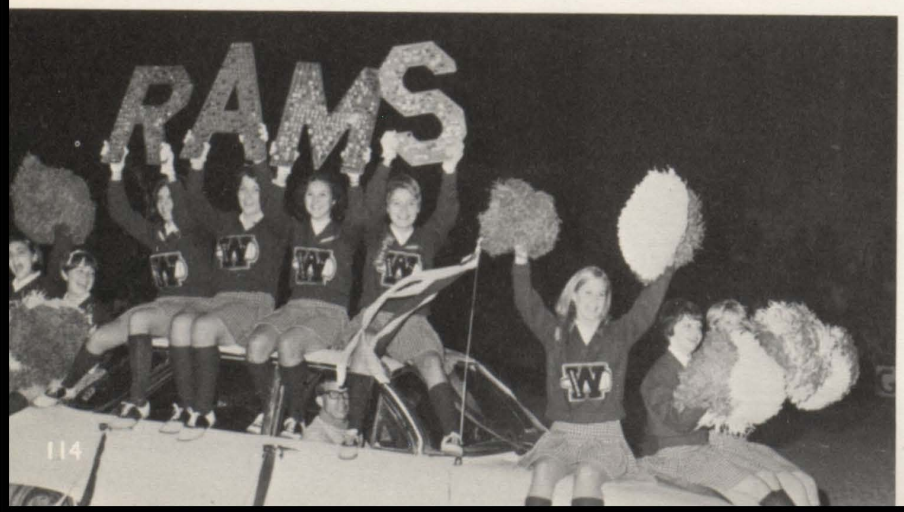
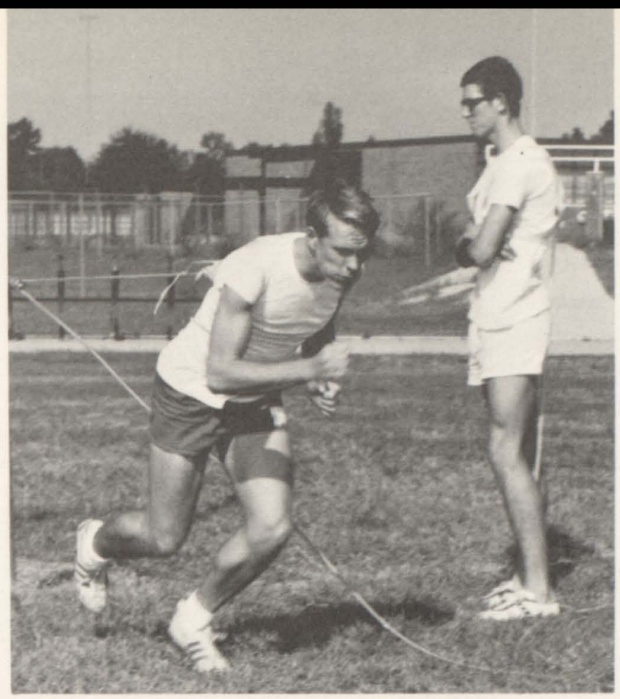
HAPPINESS BEING RAM

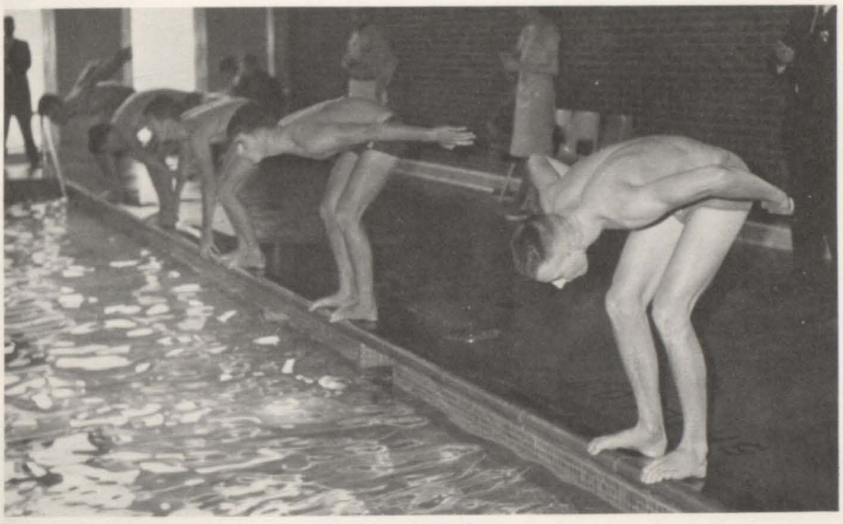


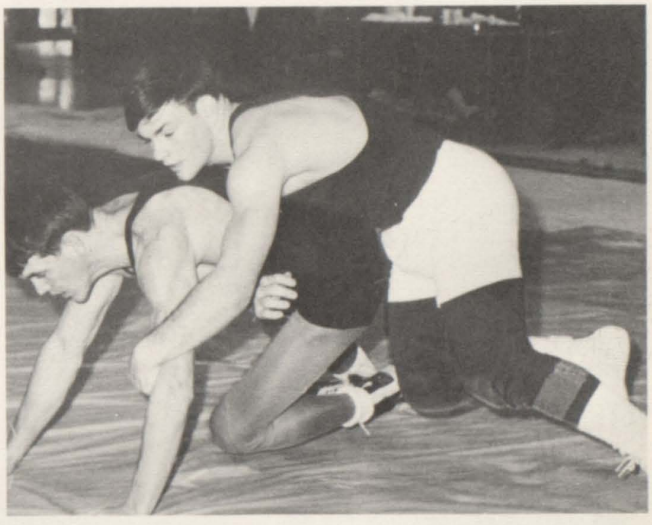


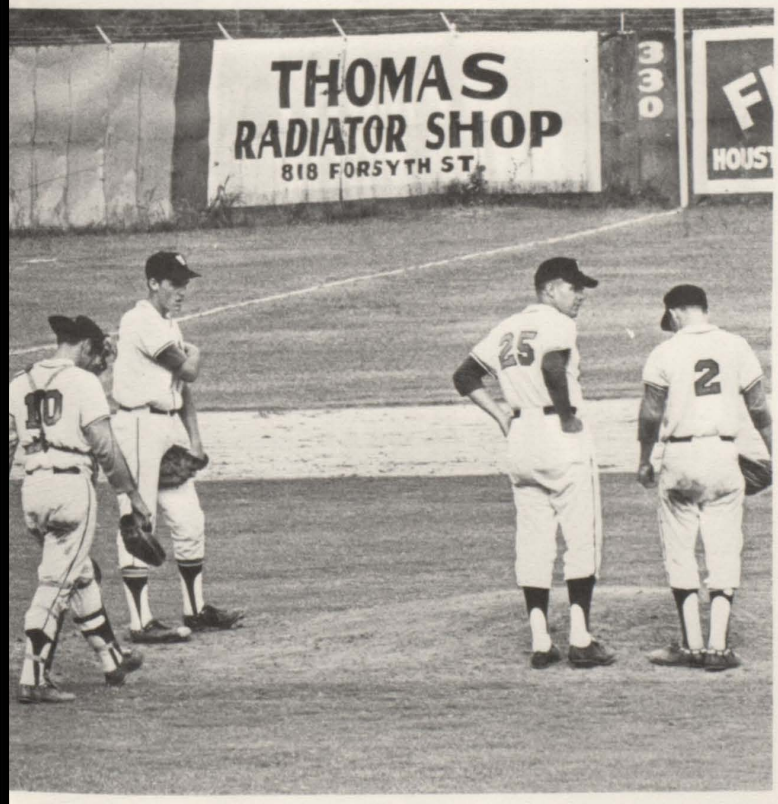


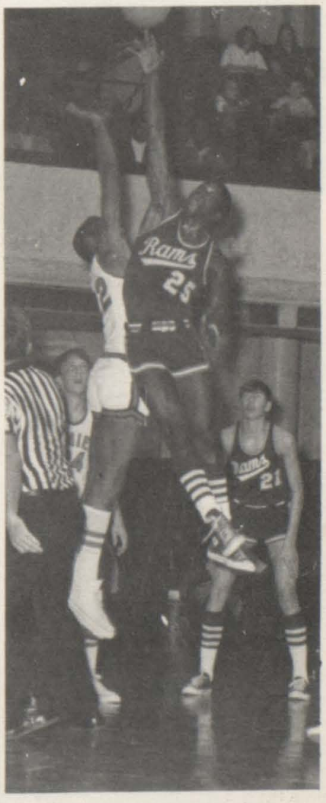
In high school, athletics plays a large part in everyone's life. At Willingham and McEvoy, it has been no different. There are sports for every season, each as demanding as the others. Each sport has to have its own philosophy, a plan to make it function; each plan depends on the talent and heart of the students. It took time to establish Willingham as a power in sports, but we were full of surprises. Consistency, peak physical condition, pride, and dedication soon came to be synonymous with Willingham sports. After a humble beginning, Willingham has established itself as a power to be reckoned with. But the support of the students has had equal importance in shaping our athletic program and bringing the name of McEvoy and Willingham to the eyes of people throughout the state.











For years at Willingham, there has always been an annual display of physical fitness. Under the direction of Billy Henderson and Ann Hadarits this "P.E. Night" has grown into what we know as McWill Night. It has grown from the point of strictly student participation to a community undertaking. It stresses physical fitness as part of the American way of life. But McWill is still just a symbol of all the heritage and tradition of McEvoy and Willingham past and present — a symbol of all the memories of past glories. Through twelve wonderful years we have seen some proud moments. The thrill of seeing the coliseum almost filled for McWill — the excitement of winning our first state championship — the pride that all shared in whipping Lanier six straight — the pride all shared in winning three straight from Valdosta — winning the Northside game '69 for Hidgon. We have much to be proud of. The past of Willingham and McEvoy should inspire us to carry over our ideals into every aspect of human endeavor.

B-Team Cheerleaders

Captain: WANDA FIVEASH Co-Captain: DEBBIE SARK

I always wanted to go to Willingham, but not at eight o'clock on Saturday morning . . . KEEP THOSE HANDS ON YOUR HIPS AND SMILE . . . B-TEAM really rated . . . We had one football game at Henderson Stadium at 6 o'clock . . . what's the B- stand for . . . Guess . . . look at the big turn out . . . ten people . . . HAVE YOU GOT THAT SPIRIT . . . notice the thunderous response . . . Linda Bullard started a chant! . . . Paula, you got your white skirt cleaned . . . Paula, watch out for the mud puddle . . . Oh, boy, another pep rally at Willingham . . . watch out for the pennies . . . Hey, which arm goes up first? . . .

Gymnastics

Sylvia, spot me in a back handspring . . . Where's the spot belt? . . . Hey, Miss Smith . . . Cindy, do a front walkover . . . What for? . . . Are you limbered up yet? . . . Work on your rolls . . . Okay, Lynne, let's see your routine . . . Tumbling club will practice Tuesday afternoon . . . You've come a long way, Baby! . . . Up, up, and away! Tyre turns while Mondy flips on Monday . . . 1-2-3-4-5-6 . . . 6-5-4-3-2-1 . . . Midget McMillan does a midget sauce while Junie Juice jumps on the trampoline.

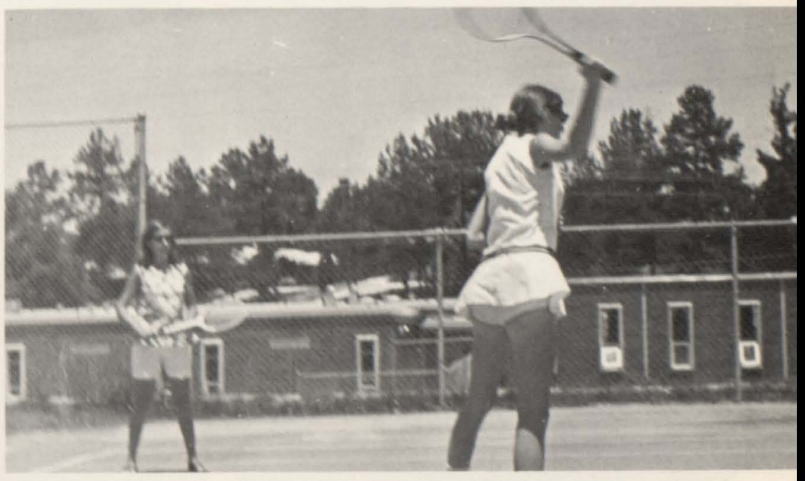
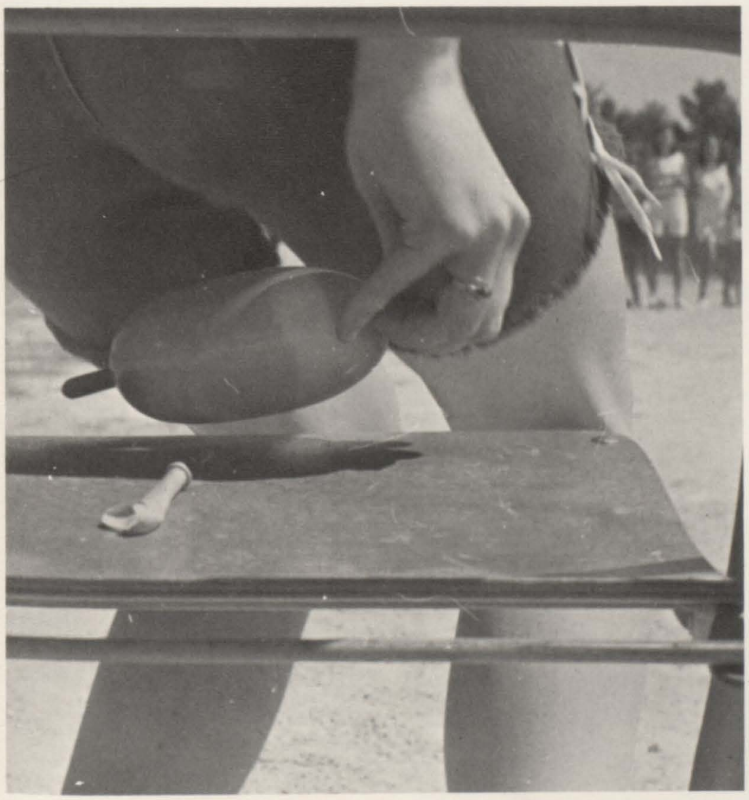
Square Dancing

All right, girls, form a large circle . . . Let's put it to music . . . No, Denise, to the left, not the right . . . Alamand left . . . swing your partners . . . No, this way . . . Sashay down the middle . . . Martha, one and a half turns, not just a half . . . Little Brown Jug? . . . Watch closely as Miss Smith and Mrs. Hadarits demonstrate . . . Mrs. Bohannon, Do you go like this or like that? . . . See, I told you . . . How can you tell the boys from the girls . . . I hate to hold her hand . . . just hold her pinky . . . There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight . . . What Town?

Gym Day

All old and new officers of GAA be at school at 7:30 to line the field . . . Remember, running events at 10:30 and throwing at 11:00 . . . Don't write anything on the scoreboard until you're absolutely sure . . . Broad jump contestants report to the gym . . . Results of comic relays — Jrs. 1st, Srs. 2nd, Soph. 3rd . . . Last call — Broad jump participants report to the gym . . . What did she say? . . . cokes on sale in the parking lot . . . pass those cookies . . . it's only 10:00 and I'm ready to go home . . . heh, the Juniors are finally winning something . . . Does anybody want to broad jump? . . . Class of '70 wins Gym Day — Yeh!





Seniors vs. Teachers

Hey, Granny . . . What do you mean point? — that ball was a mile out . . . All right cutey, let's go . . . I'll get you back in class today, Shepard . . . You'll regret it . . . Aim for Mr. Lowery. Why? You idiot — he can't hit — or can he? . . . Can Mrs. Bell play volleyball? . . . No, she just tries hard . . . Mrs. Berlin looks like a teenager in her shorts . . . Let's go Seniors . . . Pork chops, pork chops, greasy, greasy — we're gonna beat ya'll easy, easy.

'No, silly, use the sidearm serve . . . swap around . . . guard her, Linda . . . Wood! What? Wood's good now . . . Don't play up too close . . . Three seconds in the lane . . . Hey stupid, under the goal . . . advantage in . . . Love all . . . Did I hear you right? . . . seven to three, ready? . . . For what? . . . Here it comes . . . They must have spiked it . . . Don't they always? . . . Hey, what side am I on? . . . You are on that side, but you just shot the goal for us! . . . Get it, Got it, Good! . . . I've got it, I've got it . . . You do? . . .

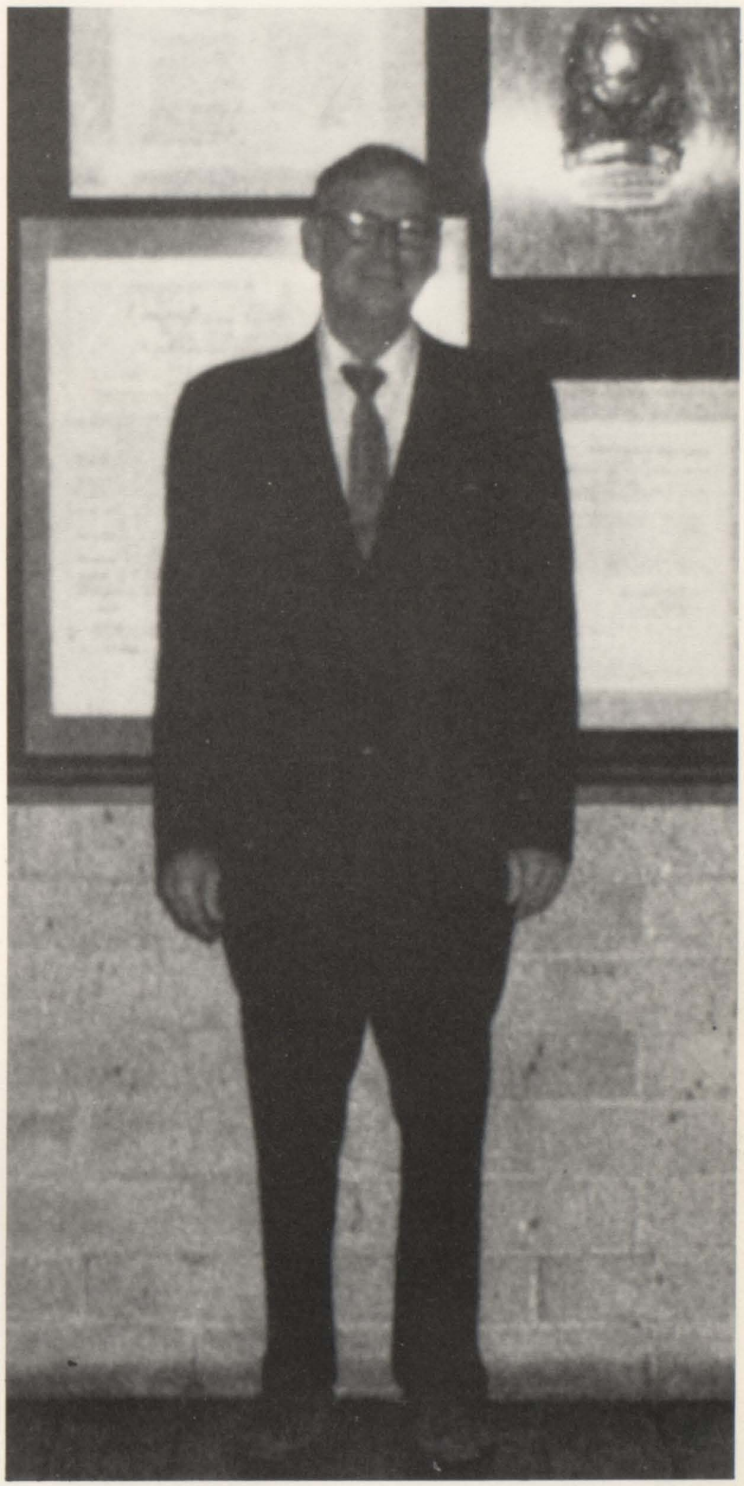
Principals

MRS. MILDRED W. HULL

The problems, decisions, complications, and unusual situations confronting a high school principal nowadays are staggering indeed. To cope with all these things, a person must have wisdom, insight, a keen sense of humor, and above all, pride and love for the school, its traditions, its standards, and especially its students. Mrs. Hull exhibits all these qualities and more besides. We feel she executes her office in a manner conducive to the betterment of McEvoy, and the good of the students. Mrs. Hull, we gratefully salute you.



FRED JOHNSON

Mr. Johnson exemplifies the sternness needed for discipline in an all male school, but also he portrays a warmth to students that shows his interest and concern. He is respected by students and faculty alike. As traditionally as Willingham means blue and white, Mr. Johnson portrays the traditional pride and spirit of the Willingham Ram. Mr. Johnson, we salute you.

When are our senior rings coming? . . . Oh, I know; they're going to give them to us for graduation! . . . I don't know whether I want to give him mine after all; it looks better on me than on him anyhow . . . Hey where's the front of this lunch line; I'm starving . . . Maybe we should donate some money to Hudson's to build a larger dining area for future generations of seniors; sitting three deep in one chair isn't the most comfortable thing in the world . . . Sixth period free — which shall I do — go home or stay at school and walk up and down the hall gloating? . . . Have you heard what the theme for the Junior-Senior is — San Francisco Smog by Night? Only 164 more days to graduation — who's graduating? . . . Hey, I am!

Where's the red paint? . . . I just poured it down the drain . . . How would Donna look with green freckles? . . . Lori, you're not supposed to jump on the stool; you should jump off it . . . How many moon rocks can we get in Randi's volkswagen? . . . Two in the trunk, two in the back, and five running along behind. How can you make a Chinese pagoda look like a rocket? . . . No, Linda, don't dance to the music; act scared . . . Can't Shelia yell a little louder? . . . No, that is not M&M's; that's the pills . . . The protestors can't go home; it will ruin our skit . . . In Memory

Of Nicki Ann Whitley

Nicki gave to the lives of others more than she took. Her cheerful attitude and love of humanity brought joy to all who knew her. McEvoy will miss her presence and cherish her memory. The class of 1970 presents this memorial to one of its finest members.

Do you know where I can buy a pipe like Mr. Johnson's . . . Upchurch, where'd you park your horse? . . . What was the movie about? What? You don't know . . . Guess we'll flip to see who drives next weekend . . . That teacher told us we were a bunch of idiots . . . Let's build a Senior recreation room with the Civitan bricks. Oh, heck no. Don't you know they're going to build a walkway to McEvoy with them . . . Watch out for us big, bad hall monitors . . . I rang the doorbell, and she came to the door in curlers — Ugh. She didn't look much better out of them . . . Hey, Hartness, do you still think Florida is the bottom of China . . . Have you seen Bob Fountain's hair? No, has anybody . . . At least, I'll make 400 for signing my name on the college board . . . They say the seniors got slightly inebriated last year after graduation. Wonder if it will be any better this year? . . . He told me I was the epitome of asininity.

Look, there are boys and girls on the soccer field together . . . I thought it was a rumor . . . Wouldn't you know, the year after my boyfriend graduates, we can have visitors . . . Does anybody know where the spirit stick is? . . . You told WHO the theme of the Junior-Senior was WHAT? . . . I thought she was just kidding when she said we'd have a test today . . . Will you girls take a break long enough for us to have algebra class? . . . You've got to admit, we've GOT THAT SPIRIT! . . .

Stunt night . . . Hey, where do you sign up? . . . We're painting props Saturday . . . BE THERE! . . . If I don't get a part I'll just die! . . . If I get a part I'll die — my boyfriend's coming . . . Does anybody have any ideas? . . . Write that down! . . . O.K., gang, we've met everyday this week and we've got one act written . . . My mother's forgotten what I look like . . . Where's Mrs. Grace? . . . Popping corn . . . Write that down! . . . Dress Rehearsal's at 7 . . . BE THERE! . . . Talk louder and THROW OUT THAT CHEWING GUM! . . . Are you going to Lum's afterwards? . . . My contact just attacked me . . . My Mom and Dad insisted on coming to see what I've been doing for two weeks. Is my makeup smeared? . . . When do I come in? . . . Hail to the class of 71! . . . We were good! . . . If they don't announce the winner now I'm going yo have a nervous breakdown . . . I don't believe it . . . We won! . . . Where's the trophy? . . . Let me touch it . . . I'm exhausted . . . Go Juniors . . . Second to None . . .

Yeah, We've collected $20.00 in dues for the Junior-Senior . . . Doughnuts, anybody for doughnuts? I'm sick of doughnuts . . . You reckon anybody cut to decorate for the Jr.-Sr.? . . . Oh, are we having decorations this year? Hey, did you get in Beta? You bet! . . . You reckon I flunked a Chemistry test today? Did you take one? Yeah, Well, I guess you flunked a Chemistry test today . . . Shut up and go back to sleep.

Would you look; we have exactly the same schedule! Yeah, only different teachers . . . Mame . . . What? . . . You want me to say it in Spanish? . . . Now? . . . But Mrs. Blount, we've only been in here thirty minutes . . . Dress rehearsal is tomorrow! If one person misses this practice, the Sophomores will withdraw . . .
This is it, Stunt Night! Oh, just listen, they're so good! What if nobody laughs? What if nobody gets it? . . .

Look, have you ever seen so many girls? Hush, here comes the speaker. What you want to bet he tells us we're the prettiest group of girls he's ever spoken to. Hey, tell them to quit passing that boy's picture around; the teachers are giving us dirty looks. Well, that's just 'cause we're sophomores. Sometimes I wish I was anything but a sophomore and then sometimes it's great! . . . This is really a change from Junior High! . . . Hail to the great and all they do. Hail to the class of '72!

A high school education involves more than just studying. It is learning to get along with other people, being a part of a group, and participating in a united effort. The activities at McEvoy and Willingham have given their students the needed experience to develop into mature adults ready to take their place in the world. These activities have become a tradition of McEvoy and Willingham. And this tradition, this spirit, this spontaneity, are what make McEvoy and Willingham the outstanding brother-sister schools they are.

Working on the Junior-Senior, preparing for Stunt Nite, practicing with the baseball team, yelling at a football game, decorating for Homecoming; these are all integral parts of life at McEvoy and Willingham and are what their students remember as tradition years after graduation. Even if McEvoy and Willingham, as such, cease to exist, the memories, spirit, and tradition will live forever.

The editorial staff wishes to express its sinceres and appreciation to the following people for their help and loyalty in the preparation of the 69-70 Ramscott:

Mr. Charlie Massey
Mr. Leslie Burdge
Mr. Bill Meriwether, Sr.
Mr. Bill Meriwether, Jr.

It is difficult to acknowledge all those who have provided help behind the scenes, but here are four who have risen above the rest. Principals Mildred Hull and Fred Johnson and our advisors Trudy Norris and Mary Smith fully deserve our deepest thanks for their assistance and cooperation. We have done our best to show just a glimpse of the 69-70 school year and all of the tradition and heritage that belongs to Willingham and McEvoy — to preserve a memory.
